

British Geriatric society NE Thames Region Meeting

Barts Health NHS Trust - Royal London Hospital, Dental Hospital (off turner Street), Educational Centre (downstairs), Seminar room 5

Thursday September 26th 2019

Programme

- Abdominal Aortic Aneurism repair 1300-1330

Mr Paritosh Sharma – Vascular Surgeon

- An update on role of TAVI 1330-1400

Dr Simon Kennon Consultant Cardiologist

- Anaesthesia in the Older Patient 1400-1430

Speaker TBA

- Discussion 1430-1445

Break 1445-1500

- Peripheral Vascular Disease and Diabetic Foot Care 1500-1530

Mr Sandip Sarkar - Vascular Surgeon

Vascular CNS - Miss Bronwyn Van Aarde

- Major Trauma in the Elderly 1530-1600

Dr Dhanu Siva – Consultant Geriatrician and T-POPS Lead

- Trainee Presentation – A Medical Registrars role in Perioperative Optimisation 1600-1630

Dr Kate Hutchinson

- Discussion and Wrap up 1630-1645

The British Geriatrics Society acknowledges with grateful thanks, the support given through sponsorship from:

DERMAL LABORATORIES & Abbott Nutrition

Speaker Biographies: BGS regional meeting 26th September 2019

- Mr Paritosh Sharma

Consultant Vascular and Endovascular Surgeon Barts Health NHS Trust

MBBS MD (Res) FRCS

Year qualified:2001

Speaker biography

Mr Paritosh Sharma is a Consultant Vascular Surgeon at Barts Health. He has a particular interest in open and endovascular aortic surgery.

- Bronwyn van Aarde

Bronwyn van Aarde is a Vascular Clinical Nurse Specialist with a keen interest in Peripheral vascular disease and wound care.

Abstract

- Identifying Peripheral vascular disease early in admission
- Key assessments Junior doctors should be encouraged to learn
- Management of the diabetic foot – wound care
- Referrals for discharge to consider

- Dr Simon Kennon

I am an interventional cardiologist and lead the Structural Cardiac intervention team (TAVI) at the Barts Heart Centre.

I qualified from Manchester university Medical School in 1992, my cardiology training was in North East Thames.

- Dr Kate Hutchinson MBChB BSc (Hons) MRCP

Specialist Registrar in Geriatric Medicine and General Internal Medicine

Clinical Fellow in Royal London hospital since 2018. Worked in Geriatric medicine and supported the T-POPS service reviewing surgical patients from a broad range of surgical sub-specialities.

- Mr Sandip Sarkar FRCS, MA, PhD,FRCS

Vascular Surgeon at Barts Health and the Royal London Hospital. Expertise in managing peripheral vascular disease and diabetic ulcers.

- Dr Mevan Gooneratne MRCA

Consultant Anaesthetist Royal London Hospital

Member of Age and Anaesthesia, works in the high risk anaesthetic service at Royal London hospital, and has had training and guidance from GSTT POPS service

- Dr Dhanupriya Sivapathasuntharam

Consultant Geriatrician, Lead Clinician for Trauma and Perioperative Older Persons Services (T-POPS), Royal London Hospital, Barts Health NHS Trust

Dr Dhanupriya Sivapathasuntharam is a Consultant Geriatrician at the Royal London Hospital. She started in 2011 in Orthogeriatrics leading on the hip fracture service having trained in the Guys and St Thomas' POPS service. She has expanded her role to include Major Trauma and other surgical patients. She is currently clinical lead for the T-POPS, Trauma and Perioperative Older Peoples Services and is developing the service as well as conducting research in the older trauma and orthopaedic patient. She is Lead for